

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

MONGOLIA

TRAINING, ADVOCACY AND NETWORKING PROGRAM

TAN trainer is conducting communication training for secondary school teachers in Dundgobi aimag
Photo by J. Chantsaldulam

PROJECT LOCATION:

- Years 1 to 3: Two Gobi aimags – Uvurhangai and Dundgobi
- Years 3 to 5: Three additional aimags – to be determined

PROJECT GOAL:

To increase development of an active civil society in targeted rural administrative regions of Mongolia

PROJECT OBJECTIVES:

- Increase support of citizen oversight of public services and citizen involvement in the policy process
- Increase impact and sustainability of rural society activists and organizations
- Increase citizen's awareness of and involvement in civil society activities

FUNDING PERIOD:

September 2003 – August 2008

CONTACT ADDRESS:

Mercy Corps, Inc
24 Peace Avenue, Bayanzurkh district
Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia
Phone: +976-11-460-968
Email: postmaster@mercycorps.org.mn

PROJECT FOCUS:

- Supporting collaboration between civil society organizations and local government that increases civic participation
- Supporting civil society organizations to mobilize community resources in innovative ways for improved organizational sustainability and impact
- Supporting informal civil society associations to develop and benefit from indigenous organizational capacity building expertise
- Promoting awareness of and involvement in community driven activism and social entrepreneurship

PROJECT ACTIVITIES:

- Organizational assessments and planning for civil society organizations
- Capacity building for civil society organizations based on individualized organizational development plans
- Training of trainers for local experts, including how to market training to local civil society and governmental organizations
- Targeted grants and technical assistance to promote social entrepreneurs among civil society organizations
- Assistance to civil society organizations to increase civic participation levels in their communities through household assessment methods
- Capacity building for civil society organizations, government and businesses in target geographic areas to establish transparent procurement mechanisms

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Increased community participation in local council meetings by 40%
- Helped Civil Society Organizations (CSO) to pool resources and implement joint projects
- Initiated the tender of public services to CSOs for the first time, by facilitating local government and CSO joint service planning
- Helped form the first Civil Society Associations

Training, Advocacy &
Networking Program

